

YWCA Greater Cincinnati
2021 Mamie Earl Sells Scholarship Award

The YWCA is on a mission.

The mission of the YWCA is to empower women and eliminate racism. YWCA Greater Cincinnati reaches thousands of women, men and their families annually through critically needed programs that include two domestic violence shelters and transitional housing; prevention and intervention services; racial justice initiatives; the Career Women of Achievement Event; and the Mamie Earl Sells Scholarship Fund.

Mamie Earl Sells

Mamie Earl Sells was committed to young people, promoting programs that encouraged them to expand and improve their personal lives and career opportunities. This scholarship, being awarded for the 29th year, is dedicated to her memory. Personally dedicated to the YWCA during the last decade of her life, Mamie played a leadership role in developing the Career Women of Achievement event. This scholarship award honors Mamie's philosophy that we must "lift as we climb". The scholarship is meant to recognize young Black women who have been successful academically despite facing hardships.

Scholarship Application Criteria

- Student must be a Black female.
- Student must have a minimum scholastic average of "B" (3.0) from most recent grading period
- Student should be in the top 1/3 of her high school class
- Student must be able to demonstrate ability to overcome adversity.
- Student must be attending a high school in the Greater Cincinnati/Northern Kentucky area.
- Top three Scholarships will be awarded upon proof of enrollment at a post-secondary institution or college.

Scholarship Evaluation Factors

This donor-restricted fund provides financial assistance to Black females entering academic post-secondary institutions. Factors evaluated by the scholarship committee include:

- Academic record
- Ability to overcome adversity
- Essay quality
- Involvement in extracurricular activities
- Community service
- Employment history
- Application of special talents

All information will be kept confidential.

The Mamie Earl Sells Scholarship winner will be honored during the annual YWCA Career Women of Achievement events in Spring 2021. In addition, the top finalists will also receive recognition. All ten finalists will be celebrated at a Spring Tea. Preceding the Tea they will engage in an interactive Workshop. Each scholar will also be paired with a YWCA Rising Star who will act as a "coach" over the next 18 months.
